The Television Showperson of the Year award recognizes professional impact, artistic excellence and special spirit defined as showmanship, displayed by Wyle most recently in the esteemed Warner Bros. Television/HBO Max medical drama "The Pitt," for which he is an executive producer, co-writer, director and star.

Wyle was honored as both actor and producer when “The Pitt” swept the top awards for lead male actor and drama series at the 2025 Primetime Emmys®, 2026 Golden Globes and 2026 Critics Choice Awards. Wyle also received two 2026 Actors Awards nominations, for both his individual work as well as the full cast achievement.

Wyle first became a household name through his iconic portrayal of Dr. John Carter on the seminal NBC series “ER.” During his tenure, he became the show's longest-serving cast member, appearing in 254 episodes and earning five consecutive Emmy® Award nominations and three Golden Globe Award nominations. Wyle advocates for healthcare reform and safer working conditions for frontline nurses, and is a dedicated union member, contributing to educational resources for the SAG-AFTRA Foundation.

ABOUT THE ICG PUBLICISTS AWARDS:

Entertainment publicists first formed a union in 1937 as the Screen Publicists Guild, later becoming the Publicists Guild. In 2002, the Publicists Guild merged with the International Cinematographers Guild (IATSE Local 600). The first Publicists Awards Luncheon was held in 1964 and has since grown to an event attended annually by some 800 publicists, press, motion picture and television industry leaders, and other IATSE leaders. Motion Picture and Television Showperson Awards and Lifetime Achievement Awards have been bestowed upon numerous esteemed actors, directors and executives. Additional awards include the Maxwell Weinberg Awards for Television and Motion Picture Publicity Campaigns, Les Mason Award for Career Achievement in Publicity, Bob Yeager Award for Community Service, Publicist of the Year, Press Award, International Media Award and Excellence in Unit Still Photography Award for both Motion Pictures and for Television. The Guild also publishes the annual ICG Publicists Membership Directory.
